

KISA QUIZ COMPETITION (BRAIN BUZZ) 2024-25

The KISA Inter school National Level Quiz Competition, held at St. Patrick's Academy in Bangalore, was a significant event this year, featuring 62 schools from across the country. Known for its challenging format and high stakes, the competition tested students on a broad range of subjects including general knowledge, current affairs, history, and science.

Carmel Convent School, Carmelaram, made a notable impression with its students, Able Anto from Class 7U A and Hari Kashyap from Class 7U C, secured the third position. Their achievement is a testament to their exceptional knowledge and quick thinking, as well as the school's commitment to academic excellence.

The quiz was designed to challenge participants and push their intellectual limits. Able Anto and Hari Kashyap navigated through the rigorous rounds with confidence and accuracy, standing out among the many talented competitors. Their performance not only highlights their individual abilities but also reflects the supportive and effective educational environment at Carmel Convent School.

The success of Able Anto and Hari Kashyap is a proud moment for the Carmel Convent community. Their third-place finish is a significant accomplishment, celebrating their hard work and the school's dedication to nurturing young talent. This achievement serves as an inspiration for their peers and underscores the high standards of academic excellence upheld by Carmel Convent School.

The Carmelites celebrate this success and look forward to future competitions where our students can continue to shine.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

The 78th Independence Day was commemorated with exceptional fervor at our school, under the theme "Our Nation, Our Pride." The event featured a splendid march past executed by both junior and senior students, accompanied by an expertly orchestrated band. The vibrant programme commenced with the formal introduction of our chief guest. Master Shyam A Patel of IX A and Kumari Anjana A of VIII D delivered the welcome speech, introducing Sri Yutha Sangharsh Kumar, an esteemed former student and Ex Carmelite. Sri Yutha Sangharsh Kumar, known for his inspiring contributions to society, engages in live music performances and recordings, practices playing various instruments, and provides stunning vocal performances.

The student presentations, vivid and dynamic, began with a captivating welcome dance and were followed by a poignant skit on patriotism. Students from both junior and senior wings delivered an engaging and evocative performance.

The day concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Kumari Parnika H of IX C and Master Jeevan M of VIII C and was capped off with the distribution of sweets to all attendees. The Independence Day celebration at our school eloquently reinforced the principles of unity and solidarity.

FREEDOM'S COLORS

Chart Making & Fancy Dress

On August 12th and 14th Chart making and Fancy-dress competition was held for our children. It was a great day for our Pre-Primary kids, with great excitement and innocent smiles. India, our motherland, is a land of INCREDIBLE diversity and richness. Our students actively participated in Fancy-dress (National Leaders) and chart making (National symbols of India & Unity in Diversity) competition. Our LKG & UKG children were encouraged to get involved through their chart works and our tiny tots (Nursery) were emboldened to take the stage with their graceful walk.

A large number of students enthusiastically participated in the competition that was judged by excellent panel consisting of Sr. Yajna, Sr. Christy, Sr. Pavana, Mr. Krishnamurthy, Mr. Dheeraj, Mrs. Hemavathy and Mrs. Mamun and organized by Mrs. Angel Shiny, co-ordinator of Pre-primary wing along with all teachers under the guidance of Rev. Sr. Anila, the Manager, Rev. Sr. Catherine, the Principal, Rev. Sr. Celine the Vice Principal and Rev. Sr. Pavithra. The little champs were awarded by delightful surprises.

OUTSTANDING BEHAVIOR AWARD

Best Class Competition was conducted among classes to promote a sense of responsibility, punctuality, and respect for rules and regulations. The competition aimed to encourage students to develop good habits and a disciplined approach to their daily lives. The competition was held over a period of one month, where classes were monitored and evaluated based on their discipline, behaviour, and adherence to school rules. Parameters such as attendance, punctuality, uniform, and behaviour in class and during assembly were considered. After a thorough evaluation, the results were as follows:

- Class IX-C emerged as the winner from Class V to X*
- Class VII-C stood second, from Class 7 to 10.*

The competition brought about a significant improvement in student behaviour and discipline. Students were seen to be more punctual. The competition also fostered a sense of teamwork and camaraderie among classmates. The discipline competition was a huge success, and it is recommended to conduct such competitions regularly to reinforce good habits and discipline among students.

PRE-PRIMARY INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

INCREDIBLE INDIA

“INDIA IS THE CRADLE OF THE HUMAN RACE, THE BIRTH PLACE OF HUMAN SPEECH, THE MOTHER OF HISTORY, THE GRANDMOTHER OF LEGEND AND THE GREAT GRANDMOTHER OF TRADITION”

- Mark Twain

India, a land of vibrant colours, diverse cultures, and the countless wonders. On 14th August, we celebrated INCREDIBLE INDIA programme for our pre-primary children.

The programme started with the welcome speech by Teresa Maria Jason Pre-primary faculty followed by prayer song by teachers and a vibrant tricolour dance performed by our LKG students enthusiastically.

UKG children showcased their talent through a skit 'UNITY IN DIVERSITY'. They ignited the audience with their confident speech about our INCREDIBLE INDIA. Tiny soldiers from UKG took the centre of the stage by their blazing brilliant movements with great energy. Ramp walks of LKG children which denoted rich cultures and diversity of INDIA. Finally, our young champs winded up the programme with vote of thanks.

“And that’s a wrap! But new beginning awaits”

Resilience

virtue of the month
(August)

In August 2024, Carmel Convent School dedicated the entire month to fostering resilience among VIII-grade students through a series of engaging and impactful activities. The programme was designed to empower students with the ability to overcome challenges and maintain a positive mindset, embodying the essence of resilience. As the saying goes, "Resilience is not about never falling, but about rising every time we fall." This quote perfectly encapsulated the spirit of the month's activities. VIII grade students participated in various activities such as speech, dance performances, and thought provoking skit. The class teachers also played an active role sharing speech, which created a sense of unity and collaboration within the school community. The month-long programme was a remarkable success, leaving a lasting impression on everyone involved and reinforcing the importance of resilience in everyday life.

KISA POETRY COMPETITION

On 24th August, 2024, Ryan International School in Bangalore hosted the KISA Poetry Recitation competition, conducted online. This innovative virtual format allowed students from 104 schools across the region to participate, showcasing their poetic talents from the comfort of their homes.

The competition featured a diverse array of poetic expressions, with students performing a range of classic and contemporary poems. Among the many remarkable performances, Gwen Luvena D'Souza from Carmel Convent School, representing class IV C, emerged as a notable finalist. Her performance stood out due to her articulate delivery, emotional engagement, and the depth she brought to her chosen poem. Gwen's ability to connect with the poem and convey its essence effectively through a virtual medium was commendable.

The online nature of the event did not detract from the high standards of the competition. Instead, it highlighted the adaptability and resilience of both students and organizers in embracing new formats. Gwen's advancement to the finals was a significant achievement, reflecting the quality of talent nurtured at Carmel Convent School.

The KISA Poetry Recitation competition successfully demonstrated the power of technology to bring educational and cultural events to a wider audience. Gwen Luvena D'Souza's success in this innovative format underscored her exceptional skill and the school's commitment to fostering literary excellence.

The KISA International School Competition was recently hosted at Patel Public School, featuring a "Pick and Speak" competition with participation from over 104 schools. This event tested students' ability to think quickly and speak effectively by delivering impromptu speeches on randomly assigned topics. Representing Carmel Convent School, the following students participated: Aadya Vijay(I B), Efrina Jins. L(II A), Nathalia C. S(III D), Aanya Tripathi(IV B), Joanna Stuthi Alwyn (V). In this dynamic and competitive setting, Nathalia C.S. from Carmel Convent School distinguished herself remarkably. As a student of Class III D, Nathalia secured the second place in the Pick and Speak category. Her achievement underscores her outstanding public speaking skills and her ability to articulate her thoughts under time constraints. The Pick and Speak event required participants to not only exhibit a strong command of language but also the capacity to think on their feet, presenting ideas clearly and persuasively. Nathalia's exceptional performance stood out among a wide range of contestants, highlighting her talent and readiness. Her success in this demanding competition is a proud moment for Carmel Convent School. The Carmel Convent School community is celebrating Nathalia's success with great pride. Her second-place finish is a significant achievement for the school, reflecting the effectiveness of its educational programs in enhancing students' public speaking and critical thinking skills. This accomplishment demonstrates the school's dedication to nurturing excellence and preparing students to excel in various academic endeavors. In summary, Nathalia C.S.'s achievement in the Pick and Speak segment of the KISA International School Competition is a notable accomplishment for Carmel Convent School. Her second place victory not only brings recognition to her abilities, but also underscores the school's commitment to fostering talented and confident students. The entire Carmel Convent School community extends heartfelt congratulations to Nathalia and eagerly anticipates further successes that will continue to highlight the school's dedication to excellence.

"FUTURE BOTS FIESTA – 2024" KISA ROBOTICS COMPETITION

The "FUTURE BOTS FIESTA -2024" event took place on 28th August, 2024 and was hosted by The Regency Public School. Carmel Convent School participated in the sub-junior level of this competition and emerged as the 1st prize winner. The challenge was to design and construct a remote control car using a simple circuit with a wide remote capable of automatically navigating an arena and pushing or driving objects into designated holes. Students Adarsha Roy - VIII D and Nilesh Kumar - VIII C, accompanied by Mrs. Sujata Raj as their escort teacher, proudly represented the school. The school's atmosphere was delightful, and the event was impeccably organized and ran on schedule. The competition consisted of two rounds. In the first round, a student had to explain the technical aspects of the project, and in the second round, a student had to operate the bot on the school-constructed arena. Adarsh Roy operated the bot on the arena, while Nilesh Kumar explained its technical aspects. The chief guest distributed the prize, commended the winners, and encouraged others to participate in the future, marking the successful conclusion of the event. Adding to the wings of CARMEL our children exhibited their talents and secured FIRST PLACE among 52 schools in KISA ROBOTICS held at Regency public school Vidyaranyapura.
